Erwin-Schrödinger-Zentrum

The Erwin-Schrödinger-Zentrum runs according to the motto of providing one-stop service. Library and Computer and Media Service form an integrated whole to their users. More than 500 000 volumes on Chemistry, Geography, Computer Science, Mathematics, Physics and Psychology are shelved open access. There is space for more than 430 readers, including 180 PC workstations, five rooms for group study and 14 study carrels, several workplaces for disabled readers and wireless networking. Hence the readers may find state of the art work conditions at the Erwin-Schrödinger-Zentrum. Long opening hours, specialist counselling, self-issue and return machines as well as a café complete the services.
